Ceresota Flour.

By reason of the especial dryness of the hard spring wheat used (Minnesota and Dakota wheat) best in absorbs a great amount of moisture in mixing—this

HELLO GIRLS MEMBERS THEATRE PARTY TONIGHT

The Hello Girls of both the Home and Central Union Telephone companies will see "The Tie That Binds" at the Dixon opera house this evening as guests of Manager Charles Eastman. The ladies will occupy the two boxes. The girls of the Home company will occupy the box on the right, and the girls of the Central Union will occupy the box on the left of the stage.

The party will be a merry one,
and the courtesy of Manager Eastman is highly appreciated by the young ladies. "I do think Mr. Eastman is such a fine man," said one of the girls this morning, when telling about the theatre party.

TODAY IS PAY DAY AT DIXON FACTORIES

Much Money Will Flow into Hands of Dixon Merchants This Evening.

Dixon merchants are preparing to receive a general outpouring of coin this evening. For today is pay day at the Watson-Plummer shoe factory, the Anglo-Swiss Milk factor, the Grand Detour Plow works and the Sandusky Portland cement works. This fact explains that several thousands of dollars will be put into the hands of the employees this evening, and as they are the people who do the spending the merchants anticipate a busy evening. Several of the Italians from the Sandusky plant drew their money during the day and have been celebrating here during the afternoon. However, the police have had little trouble with them so far, and really expect none.

Infant Child Dead.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs.
Louis Allemand died at the home of his parents at about 6:30 o'clock this morning, death following sickness since its birth. The funeral services will be held at the home, 421 East Sixth street, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Father Michael Foley officiating. Interment at Oakwood. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of their many friends at this time.

Bankruptcy Case Dismissed.

Referee Harry S. Dixon has issued an order dismissing the case of Lyman Booth, bankrupt. This action was taken upon the petition filed by the bankrupt.

STATE ASSOCIATION MEN WILL SPEAK IN DIXON

RALLY DAY SUNDAY, DEC. 2ND, WILL BE EVENT FOR THE LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

UNION SERVICES AT CHURCHES

Business Men's Banquet Will Occur
the Following Evening at Armory Hall.

On Sunday, December 2nd, the local Y. M. C. A., with the assistance of state workers, will hold an "Association Rally," the object being to create more enthusiasm locally and to give the general public of Dixon a better idea of the great work the Young Men's Christian association is doing all over this country.

Will Fill Pulpits.

At the regular morning church service in the different churches of the city the following men will speak: Messrs. I. E. Brown, A. M.
Bruner, W. A. McKnight, W. W.
Dillon, L. L. McDonald and F. H.
Burt of Chicago, R. C. Smedley of Freeport and J. S. Miller of Peoria.

Men's Mass Meeting.

In the afternoon A. M. Bruner, state department secretary, will address a big mass meeting for men at the opera house.

Two Union Services.

In the evening there will be two union platform meetings, to be held at the Lutheran and Methodist churches. It is hoped to reach the ears of every person in Dixon through these various services, and the people may be sure that they will hear something worth while from the lips of these popular speakers.

Business Men's Banquet.

The following Monday evening
there will be a business men's banquet in Armory hall, at which there will be some very excellent speeches and a good time in general is expected. The names of the banquet speakers will be announced later.
There will be no financial sollicitation at this meeting.

BOWLING ALLEY WILL SOON BE OPENED

The opera house bowling alley is to be opened within a week or so for business. The place has been painted by Cortright & Son and now looks bright and attractive. The gentlemen who love a bowling alley will be delighted to hear that the alley will soon be ready for business. Several years ago when the alley was running full blast many good games were played there and many were the fine records made by the local bowlers. A good bowling alley rightly managed is a first class institution for any city the size of Dixon. It makes a place for the young men to spend their evenings and besides it requires some skill to play the game.

GERMAN INSURANCE CO. IN RECEIVER'S HANDS

Freeport, Nov. 20—In order to conserve the interests of all creditors, the German Insurance company was placed in the hands of a receiver Monday. This will not in any way affect the outstanding policies. The Chicago Title and Trust company, an entirely disinterested institution,
was appointed receiver.

The matter was heard before Judge Heard in the Carroll county circuit court yesterday. John T. Hendriks was appointed as temporary custodian.

RAIN OF ICE MADE TROUBLE FOR MOTORMEN

The motormen of the Sterling, Dixon & Eastern are probably the worst sufferers from the nasty weather. Slippery rails, icy trolley wire, etc., make their lot an unhappy one,
but the rain of this morning made their misery complete. For as fast as the water struck the windows at the front of the cars it formed ice through which the operator could not see. At every terminal of the run the poor man had to get out and scrape off the formation of frost.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deaf- ness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lin- ing of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rum- bling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hear- ing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by cat- arrh, which is nothing but an in- flamed condition of the mucous sur- faces.

TWO WESTERN RAILWAYS AND EXPRESS LINES

The business of two western rail- roads is to be taken from the old express companies. When the Pacific coast extension of the Chicago, Mil- waukee & St. Paul is completed in 1908 the company will begin to handle the express business of the entire system, a $30,000,000 company having been incorporated in New Jersey for this purpose, elimin- ating the American Express com- pany. The Burlington will take a similar action in ousting the Adams Express company from its lines and turning the business over to the Northern Pacific Express company, the Northern Pacific and the Bur- lington railroads being under the same ownership. The name of the express company will be changed to Northern Express.

PASTOR'S WIFE BURNED TO DEATH BY KEROSENE

Lamp Explodes in Mrs. Rathman's Hands at Hinkley, Ill.—Woman Dies From Her Injury.

(Sterling Gazette, Nov. 3.)

The explosion of a kerosene lamp Wednesday evening resulted fatally to Mrs. Ernest Rathman of Hinkley, Ill. Mrs. Rathman was retiring to her room shortly after 9 o'clock and had proceeded up the stairway a few steps when the lamp she was carry- ing exploded. Coal oil covered her clothing and in a moment she was a mass of flames. The family rushed to her assistance, but before help could be given the victim was unconscious. Physicians were called, but the acci- dent resulted in her death at four o'clock in the morning.

Mrs. Rathman was the wife of Rev. Ernest Rathman, pastor of the Hink- ley Evangelical church. She was prom- inent in Aurora society and had many friends.

LITTLE CHILD IS BURNED TO DEATH BY KEROSENE OIL

Bessie Scotchbrook, Aged Five Vic- tim of Terrible Accident.

Explosion Ignited Clothing and Un- fortunate Child Died 3 Hours Later—Was Conscious to the End.

(Sterling Gazette, Nov. 6.)

Bessie Scotchbrook, the little five year old daughter of Mrs. William Scotchbrook of Unionville, near Morrisson, was fatally burned Monday af- ternoon at 3 o'clock and died at 6 o'clock last evening. The mother of the unfortunate child is a widow and with three children lives in Union- ville. Two of the children go to school leaving the mother and little girl at home alone. Mrs. Scotchbrook had put some kindling in the stove preparatory to building a fire, and left the room to go into the yard to get some stove wood, and in her ab- sence the little girl poured a quanti- ty of kerosene on the kindling and ig- nited it, with the result that there was a sudden explosion and the lit- tle victim's clothing caught fire and she was soon enveloped in a mass of flames. She immediately rushed into the yard to call her mother, but Mrs. Scotchbrook being very much fright- ened called for a neighbor close by who came and with an old coat ex- tinguished the flames, but too late, the little girl's flesh was burned to a crisp and in taking clothing off the flesh peeled off with the shreds of garments, and the child died after three hours. The nerve centers were so badly burned that the little child suffered no pain and was conscious to the last, and told her mother that she knew she had been naughty but would not be so any more. She was an especially bright and attractive little girl, and will be sadly missed in her home and the community.

County Coroner J. G. Limerick of Rock Falls and jury held an inquest over the body this afternoon, and brought in a verdict of death being due to accidental burning.

The funeral services will be held some time Thursday afternoon and interment will be made in the Morri- son cemetery.

Thousands of people each year suffer the same fate as the above, though the account of such accidents does not come to our notice. The above articles appeared in the local papers of the last week. Hinkley is not far from us, neither is Unionville. About fifteen miles from Dixon. These accidents were from the use of kerosene. If kerosene will do this deadly work, what do you think of the use of gasoline? Gasoline is ten times more dangerous than kerosene. We all know that to be a fact. Then, can you afford to risk the life of your wife, or of your child, and the destruction of your home by the use of kerosene or gasoline? Think of the horrible deaths suffered by such accidents, yourself, your wife or child (often both) may be the next victim.

A few cents per day pays for lighting your house by gas or electric light.

SARAH, HUSTLING HEROINE

By DONALD ALLEN

Copyright, 1906, by Beatrix Reade

"Look here, Jim!" began Colville one evening, when her brother James came home to supper, "in walking past the tavern this afternoon I saw a strange young man."

"Yes, there is one there," was the reply.

"Who is he?"

"I can't tell you much about him. His name is Ripley, I believe, and he's come down from the city for a four weeks' vacation. He was asking me about boating and fishing."

James Halliday was a carpenter of the village of Branchville. His sister Sarah kept house for him.

Sarah Halliday had lived for thirty-three years and no man had hinted of matrimony to her. She never pretended that she was tender hearted and had emotion sufficient to make a great actress. Her failure to bring men to the point had rankled, and she had finally made up her mind to do a little hustling for a husband. She had seen the young man sitting on the hotel veranda with his feet cocked up on the railing, and he had at once been marked down. He had looked after her in an eager way, and she flattered herself that she had made an impression.

"If Mr. Ripley is all alone down here he must be lonesome," she said to her brother Jim after supper.

"Yes, he may be."

"Then you'd better saunter up to the tavern and show him that you want to be friendly. You can bring in, if you want to, that I noticed him this afternoon. We've got the mill pond here, and we've got a boat and fishing tackle, and it seems our duty to make the stranger's stay as pleasant as possible. You know how you'd feel if you were away from home."

The brother dutifully obeyed orders. He found Mr. Ripley smoking a cigar on the veranda. He mentioned Sarah, the mill pond, the boat and the black bass waiting to be caught, and Mr. Ripley replied that he should surely take advantage of the situation. He didn't set any date, however, and when he came home to supper on the following evening the brother observed to the sister:

"What do you think, Sarah? That Susap Jones has somehow managed to get acquainted with the stranger, and he's over at her house playing croquet."

SHE CRIED TO HIM AGAIN AND AGAIN.

"Jim, you don't tell me that for a fact!" she gasped.

"Of course I do!"

"Humph! The freshness of Miss Susan Jones must be seen to at once."

And it was. Miss Sarah speedily donned another dress, fixed up a bit, and, leaving her brother to eat alone, she started for the Jones house. Mr. Ripley and Susan were just finishing their last game. Sarah walked up to Susan and whisperingly asked for an introduction and forced the issue. When she returned home Mr. Ripley accompanied her, and he didn't leave the house until 10 o'clock. He had made himself very agreeable, and when he had departed Jim observed:

"By thunder, Sarah, but 'sposin' you could marry a feller like him!"

"I mean to!" was Sarah's laconic reply.

The next day Jim was left out of it. Sarah and Mr. Ripley took the boat and went fishing, and before they returned she thought she knew her man pretty well. He was romantic. He was inclined to be a hero. He quoted poetry. He sighed to find and love a heroine. When Jim came home that evening there was a twinkle in his eye, and after hearing about the fishing trip he said:

"Mr. Ripley seems to be a feller who gets acquainted with folks pretty fast. I just saw him walking home with Tillie Graves."

"You don't mean it!" exclaimed Sarah as she paused in the act of pouring out the tea.

"That's what I saw. She was at the tavern to see the landlord's wife, and I 'spos she was introduced."

"Well, I'll put a stop to that pretty sudden. I told Mrs. Graves only last week that Tillie was altogether too conceited."

Again Jim was left to eat his evening meal alone while the sister started out with aggressive steps. She saw Tillie and Mr. Ripley at the gate while she was yet a long way off. She walked straight up to them and observed that it was a beautiful evening for seeing the mill dam and bore the stranger away. When the pouring waters of the dam had been sufficiently admired the young man was wicketed to the Halliday homestead and kept busy quoting poetry and drinking cider until 11 o'clock.

In the course of a couple of weeks at least half a dozen girls were introduced to Mr. Ripley by the landlord's wife, and each and every one of them set out for a flirtation with him. Each and every one of them came to grief, however. Sarah was in evidence, and when she butted in the others had to butt out. At the end of a fortnight she felt herself as good as engaged. Mr. Ripley had praised her strength and skill in rowing, her luck in fishing and her emotional temperament, and she had several times caught him glancing at her as a man only glances when his admiration is aroused. He had been asked to tea three or four times, and the two had boated and fished every afternoon, and all was going well.

"How's it coming out, Sarah?" asked brother Jim one morning at the breakfast table.

"There's only one thing needed," she replied, "Haven't you noticed that he is always talking about heroes and heroines?"

"Yes."

"If I were a heroine he'd pop the question inside of twenty-four hours."

"But how can you be?"

"I can't say just now, but I'm going to think it over during the day."

That afternoon she received a note from Mr. Ripley excusing himself from calling on the ground of a slight illness, and two hours after she had read the note she learned that he was sitting on the piazza with the Widow Phelps, who had had two husbands and wanted a third.

Sarah planned fast from that time on. Sarah had learned that Mr. Ripley arose and breakfasted at 8 o'clock. He then spent an hour on the veranda smoking and reading. The mill dam was not a hundred feet away and in plain view.

Next morning as the young man on a vacation sat smoking, he heard some one calling his name. He looked up, and there was Sarah Halliday in an oarless boat floating down upon the dam. She cried to him again and again, and it was plain to him that she must be swept over the falls and drowned. The best thing he could do, however, was to fall over his rocking chair and roll down the steps. Right under his eyes the boat went over the dam, and right under his eyes a sawmill man, who had never longed to be a hero, fished Sarah out with a long pole. She was a heroine, but insensible. They rolled her on a barrel. They dragged her around in the sawdust. They carried her home on a slab and sent for Jim and the doctor. She was wrong out and put to bed. It was two days later when Jim was permitted to ask:

"Now, then, what in the old Harry were you doing in that boat at that hour in the morning?"

"Rowing," she answered.

"How came you to lose the oars?"

"I wanted to be rescued."

"Oh, I see. You wanted to be a heroine, eh, and you wanted to give Ripley a chance to play the hero?"

"Has he sent me any flowers?" she asked, avoiding a direct reply to his question.

"Now!"

"But he surely called?"

"How could he call when he took a skate that very forenoon?" bluntly replied the brother.

"Did he see me all wet and wopsy?"

"Of course, and that's why he skated!"

Poor Sarah! She had hustled, but she had lost.

A Mediaeval Bill of Fare.

A fourteenth century manuscript still extant records the festivities attendant on the marriage of Violante Visconti with the Duke Lionel Plantagenet, son of Edward III. of England, at Milan, Italy. The wedding dinner consisted of eighteen courses, as follows: First course, sucking pigs wrapped in a thin coating of gold, fish with their mouths giving forth fire; second, hares roasted and gilded; third, veal roasted and trout incrustated in gold; fourth, quails, partridges and again trout, roasted and gilded; fifth, ducks, game and more fish; sixth, beef and capons unadorned; seventh, capons, meat and fish done in lemon; eighth, beef and fish of different kinds; ninth, eels and more meat; tenth, galantine of meat and fish; eleventh, lamb roasted; twelfth, hare and wild boar with onions; thirteenth, veal; fourteenth, capons and chickens with red sauce of apples and lemons; fifteenth, peacocks with beans, salted tongue and roasted carp; sixteenth, peacocks again, this time boiled in spices; seventeenth, cheese, and eighteenth, cherries.

Wit Used as an Ax.

An honest old Pennsylvania farmer had a tree on his premises he wanted to cut down, but being weak in his back and having a dull ax, he hit upon the following plan: Knowing the passion among his neighbors for coon hunting, he made a coon's foot out of a potato and proceeded to imprint numerous tracks in the snow to and up the tree. When all was ready, he informed his neighbors that the tree must be filled with coons, pointing to the external evidence made with his coon's foot. The bait took, and in a short time half a dozen fellows with sharp axes were chopping at the base of the tree, each taking his regular turn. The party also brought dogs and shotguns and were in ecstasies over the anticipated haul of fat coons. The tree finally fell, but nary a coon was seen to drop.—Germantown Telegraph.

MUST RECENT OR GO

Rev. Crapsey, Who Denies One of the Fundamentals of the Christian Religion.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The decision in the Rev. Algernon S. Crapsey, who denies the virgin birth of Jesus Christ, yet refuses to leave a church in which that belief is fundamental, is against him. He was tried by an ecclesiastical court of the Episcopal church and condemned. He appealed to a court of review, and that court decides as shown by the following communication to the bishop of western New York:

"Pursuant to the general canon you are hereby notified that the court of review of the second judicial department has determined the appeal in the matter of the presentment of the Rev. Dr. Algernon S. Crapsey by unanimously affirming the judgment of the ecclesiastical court of western New York." The judgment referred to suspends Dr. Crapsey until he can satisfy the church authorities that his teaching is correct. He will hardly succeed in that and it is equally certain that he will not recant.

BEVERIDGE NOT INDORSED

Federation of Labor Convention Thinks the Senator's Child-Labor Plan Is Unconstitutional.

Minneapolis, Nov. 20.—Despite Senator Beveridge's announcement at Richmond, Ind., that he intends to introduce a bill in the senate prohibiting the employment of child labor the Federation of Labor convention decided that a national law would be unconstitutional, and therefore agreed to urge the passage of state laws that will "stop the crushing out of child life in the mills and factories and coining its life blood into dollars upon the counters of commercialism."

The convention also urged favorable consideration of the proposed amendment of the federal constitution providing for woman's suffrage. The Federation extends a helping hand to the postal clerks, who in the resolution adopted are characterized as "helpless to better their conditions." The boycott law of Alabama is to be fought, and the conditions of labor on board ships was condemned and improvement demanded.

Sterling, Nov. 20.—Because Benjamin Lefever was made seriously ill by eating wieners purchased at a Sterling meat market the state pure food commission has started a pure food crusade in this city and eight merchants may be prosecuted for selling impure goods. Remarkable Success.
The supper given by the young ladies of Dr. DuVall's class of the Methodist Sunday school Saturday evening was a decided success, and resulted in the clearance of over $50 which will be used in the fund for providing a north entrance to the basement of the church. The supper was served in four courses, each course of which cost the eater seven cents. The meal was excellently prepared and served in a manner which was exceptionally creditable to the young ladies.

Clothes Enough Better than the Ordinary

To attract good dressers from surrounding towns—where there are many of the ordinary clothing stores, is what you will find at this store. Clothes a little different, a little better made with a little more style, at prices no higher than you pay for the inferior kind, coupled with the largest assortment of good clothes shown by any store in Lee or adjacent counties, is an advantage and should be an object for you to buy clothes at this store.

WINNINGER BROTHERS PACK OPERA HOUSE

Company Which Will Play Here All This Week Gives Excellent Satisfaction.

The Winner Brothers' company, which pleased so many Dixon people in other years, opened an all week's engagement at the opera house last night to standing room only. Several hundred people were turned away. The first night's production was "What Women Will Do," and the piece pleased every body. The brothers seem to get better every time they make their appearance here. Early this morning the sale of tickets for tonight's production commenced and by the way the sale is going the indications are that the house will be sold out again for this evening. Many tickets have already been sold for Wednesday night's engagement. Tonight the company will play, "The Tie That Binds." The piece is a good one and will give the best of satisfaction.

LOCAL OPTION IS TO BE A FACTOR

Handling of Bill Will be Important Feature in Next Legislative Session.

Conferences held in Chicago by Speaker Edward D. Shurtleff and other leaders in the general assembly have resulted in the conviction that the local option issue as presented by the Illinois Anti-Saloon League will be the most serious question with which the republican party and the leaders individually as well, will have to deal at the coming session of the legislature. One of the most influential members of the house from Cook county said recently that the question threatens the republican party with a crisis. "If we don't pass the bill these people are after," he said, "we are liable to have great trouble with the church people who are backing them. If we do pass it we are in danger of losing thousands of votes, particularly with the Germans."

The leader pointed out that Cicero J. Lindly, who voted unfavorably to the local option bill in the last house, upon his return to his home in Bond county found a situation that so alarmed him that he made peace with the league; that John G. Oglesby, opposed by the league, lost his home county of Logan and was only saved from defeat by Macon county, which is in his district; that John B. Castle of DeKalb county was defeated at the primary by the league; that Nicholas L. Johnson, prohibitionist, was elected in the 14th district, embracing Kendall and Kane counties, and the democratic candidate defeated, giving Charles H. Backus, fought by the league, a close run; that Guy L. Bush was given a hard race in the 41st district, which embraces Dupage and Will counties, and that to crown all this Speaker Shurtleff has found it expedient to make peace with the league and guarantee fair play for its bill at the opening session.

"We are well satisfied with the results of the last election," said J. O. Bentall, associate editor of the Illinois Issue, organ of the league. "Out of one hundred candidates endorsed by the league seventy-eight were elected. Most of the other twenty-two were socialists or prohibitionists and had no chance. We were only disappointed in six or eight cases. We are going to press the issue in the coming legislature and we have hopes of success."

STRIKES CHECK THE ILLINOIS COAL OUTPUT

Washington, Nov. 20.—The total production of coal during 1905 in Illinois was 38,434,363 short tons, with a spot value of $40,577,592, according to a report made to the geological survey by E. W. Parker of the United States geological survey. Illinois still ranks next to Pennsylvania in the production of coal. The production in West Virginia in 1905 was 37,000,000 short tons. The report says that the expectation is that the returns for 1906 will show West Virginia to be the second coal producing state in the union, from the fact that the Illinois mines suffered from a shut down last spring, while those of West Virginia, for the most part, were kept going continuously.

The Illinois coal mines in 1905 gave employment to 58,053 men, who worked an average of 201 days. The record shows that 15,289 men were on strike during the year and lost an average of twenty-one days each. The larger number of mines in Illinois work their men eight hours a day. During the fiscal year 1905 there were 199 fatalities in the Illinois mines and 535 men were injured. Premature blasts or windy shots are the principal causes of the fatal accidents.

GAME WARDEN HAS A RIGHT TO SHOOT

According to a decision handed down in a Pennsylvania court during the past week, a game warden is not held liable for shooting a man whom he is attempting to arrest for a violation of the game laws. The case upon which this decision rested was that of a game warden who attempted to arrest a man who was illegally hunting and had game in his possession. The prisoner resisted arrest, and in the fight was shot and killed by the warden.

BOOSTING A CITY AND HOW TO DO IT

CO-OPERATION AND ENCOURAGEMENT ARE THE GREATEST REQUIREMENTS.

BONUSES VIEWED WITH DISFAVOR

Help of Newspapers an Important Factor—Whatever Is Attempted Must be Completed.

How to build up a greater city is the subject of the following letters, which, although written for a Des Moines newspaper as suggestions for Des Moines people, are of interest in Dixon:

Pointers From Indianapolis.

1. Our freight bureau works successfully. Many discriminations have been unearthed.
2. You cannot succeed without the co-operation of the newspaper and you are doubtless proud of the fact that you possess it.
3. It is not our policy to encourage the promotion of new industries, but to encourage the location of new industries.
4. In inducing manufacturers to locate with us, we show them our belt railroad, our freight depots, our schools, public buildings, churches and our streets.
5. We give no bonuses or free sites.
6. Commercial organizations never ought to deal with politics.
7. You are in the heart of a farming and mining section that extends for hundreds of miles.
8. The center of population in the United States, now thirty-five miles from Indianapolis, is moving in a westerly direction.
9. I am impressed with the character of your labor. You are not dependent on foreign labor, but draw the young men and women from the farms.
10. To the fact that our commercial club owns its own home—a $150,000 building, we are indebted for much of our influence.

Suggestions From Denver.

1. Business men should ever seek to divorce municipal government from politics.
2. Through proclamations of the mayor, we have an annual clean-up day, when all citizens vie in paying especial attention to the back yards and alleys.
3. We have a city smoke inspector.
4. We inaugurate merchants' excursions to contiguous country, and have had successful excursions of 100 business men in a solid chartered train.
5. Only nine years ago our Chamber of Commerce distributed the sugar beet seed. Today we have sixteen sugar factories.
6. We have not less than six separate and distinct organizations, laboring in their own peculiar manner to upbuild our city.
7. Our city has voted bonds to the amount of $400,000 for the purpose of erecting an auditorium.
8. It is the successful and progressive business and professional men of a city who make it what it is.
9. We lay particular stress upon encouraging the tourist and health seeker to visit us.
10. For advertising our climate and scenery we keep a competent lecturer in the field, who, with stereopticon, gives free lectures. We spend considerable money in advertising in influential journals.
11. For the beautifying of our city we have an art commission.
12. We have completed this year a Welcome Arch, which spans one of the principal streets of the city.
13. On last Arbor day the city distributed gratis 10,000 trees.
14. Free music is provided in our city parks during the summer months.

Ideas From Minneapolis.

1. There is ample opportunity to do things. It is only necessary to stimulate the civic patriotism of the people and keep them believing that their city is the best there is on earth.
2. And we found at the start that we had to fight for every advantage for ten miles away was a city which had a better and earlier start.
3. There never was a time when the business men of our city were not organized. We found that necessary above all things.
4. The board of trade was composed of older men and new blood was needed to vitalize their methods. Now the board and Commercial club have joined and an ideal organization is the result.

Harmon.

Harmon, Nov. 20.—The farmers were drawing corn to market nearly every day last week. Some of it is on the ear and some of it shelled. Frank Hettinger has been getting the bulk of the grain lately.
F. E. Stiteley of Dixon was in our town last Wednesday on business.
Mrs. Dr. Parker took the train on last Wednesday evening for Sterling to attend the funeral of a friend at that place.
The work on the new well for village purposes has been progressing very slowly as the engine is not in good working order.
Traveling salesmen are visiting our town more frequently than in former seasons.
The farmers are getting along nicely with their corn picking. Some of them will be through in a few days.
An oculist was here from Rock Falls last Thursday fitting people with glasses.
Quite a few parties here are interested in the coal business.
Thomas P. Long sold a lot in the business section to a gentleman who, we understand, is going to build a store building on it. The consideration was $500.
Mr. Bolton has had a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism. He had severe pain, but is some better now and on the fair road to recovery.
There are some visitors at the home of Wm. Camery.
Claude Horn and family have moved from Rock Falls to Harmon.
H. E. Vroman has been buying poultry from the farmers.
The Standard Oil man was here the first of the week delivering his kerosene and gasoline to the merchants and elevator men.
Conner and Brill have been repairing old wells and pumps.
English William Clark has been given ten days in the county jail. The sentence was given by Justice Wm. L. Leach Monday.

5. First of all our club is a social organization.
6. You have got to deliver the goods if you are not to fail in retaining the interest of the mass of people, which you need to back your movement.
7. There is great danger of attempting to do too many things and not doing any of them completely.
8. We raise our necessary cash by correspondence from the office. It is not even necessary to make personal appeals.
9. Little can be done without organization. Get together.
10. Don't look back of you to find something discouraging.
11. The influence of an idea plays a tremendous part in civic development. If you are given to thinking your city will advance, you will advance.

EDWARD G. HARRIS DIES AT ELROY SUNDAY

Father of Former Well Known Resident of Dixon Dies of Old Age.

Edward G. Harris, aged nearly 80 years, passed quietly away at his home at Elroy Sunday afternoon at 12:50 o'clock. He had been ailing for some time and his dissolution was the result of a complication of diseases attendant upon old age.

Mr. Harris was born in Saybrook, Ashtabula county, Ohio, on July 23, 1827. He moved to Erie, Pa., in 1830 with his parents, where he was married to Louisa E. Harvey in 1849. The couple came to Knox county, Ill., in 1861, and some time later Mr. Harris enlisted in the army, but was not allowed to enroll because of a fevered wound which he had on his foot.

The deceased and his wife came to Stephenson county in 1875, settling in Elroy, where Mr. Harris has lived ever since. For several years he was the Elroy postmaster. His business was fruit raising and he worked up a very successful trade.

In 1876, several years after the death of his first wife Mr. Harris was remarried, his bride being Miss Emily Turner, who survives him. He is also survived by two children, S. R. Harris of Chicago and Mrs. Percy A. Lane of Los Angeles, Cal., by his first wife, and a son, Basil W., by his second union.

The son, S. R. Harris, formerly resided on a farm east of Dixon and not only he but his father made many acquaintances here. The funeral was held this, Tuesday, afternoon at the United Brethren church in Elroy. The funeral was in charge of the Elroy lodge I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was state representative for many years.

THREE DIXON FAMILIES WERE MADE HAPPY

T. J. Miller Gave Away Organs Today to Advertise Opening of His Great Sale.

It was no joke with Theo. J. Miller when he stated in an ad. in The Telegraph last night that he would give away three organs to the first three persons who came to his place of business this morning. Before 7 o'clock there was quite a good sized crowd standing on the outside of the business house when the doors were opened this morning. At 7:10 the three organs were given away and before nine o'clock they had been delivered to the homes of three citizens of this city. The lucky persons were:

Mrs. Caroline Dinger, 516 North Dement avenue, who selected a fine Burdette organ.

Ed Kastler, Second street, received a good Western Cottage organ.

Will Kime, 1217 West Fourth street, had delivered to his home a Mason & Hamlin organ.

There is joy in these three homes today, for a musical instrument in the home brings cheer and pleasure to any family. When the shades of evening fall and the husband and father returns from his work, the supper dishes put away, then the little family can gather around the organ and play and sing those good old songs which bind the ties of the home much tighter and help to make life worth living.

Mr. Miller, commencing this morning, will continue the sale ten days and as he has done with the giving away of the organs he will do just as he says he will when he makes a sale of the other musical instruments which he has in his store. Christmas time is drawing near and the firm must get more room for the new holiday goods.

DIXON MAIL CLERKS IN RAILWAY WRECK

HARRY TEACHOUT, LOUIS MILLER AND FRANK BRENNER ESCAPED BY CHANCE.

MAIL CAR WAS TURNED OVER

Locomotive and Express Car Also Upset in Wreck Near Council Bluffs—No One Killed.

Harry Teachout, Frank Miller and Frank Brenner, three railway mail clerks of this city, were in the wreck of No. 10, the fast mail train near Council Bluffs, Sunday, Nov. 18th. The train was just leaving that city and was running only about thirty miles an hour. When the engine struck the switch between the depot and the round house the bar of the switch broke in two, overturning the engine, express and one mail car. In the mail car which turned over were Teachout and Miller. The young men were thrown from the rear to the front end of the car, about sixty feet, and escaped without a scratch. Brenner was in the next car which, as luck would have it, did not turn over, but left the tracks. It was a narrow escape for all three of the clerks and had the train been running at the usual rate of sixty miles or more an hour there would have been a different story to tell.

The engineer and fireman escaped with their lives, although they sustained some severe bruises. The engine turned completely over. The train was delayed about two and a half hours and passed through here Monday morning about 8 o'clock.

Ernie Clark visited relatives in Sterling Sunday.

DEMENT TOWN DOINGS

Yes, the walks were very slippery.

Did you bump the bumps this morning?

Ed Donovan left last evening for New Orleans.

P. J. Lonergan, road commissioner for the I. C., of Freeport, visited with friends and transacted business here Monday.

However, with a couple of barrels of apples and a keg of sauerkraut in the cellar, we hope to pass the period between baseball seasons quite comfortably.

"Rabbit," the famous pugilist of the city of Nelson, and his notorious companion Harry, are on the sick list. It is hoped the youngsters will soon recover.

All of which recalls the story of the pastor and his friend who were walking along the avenue such a morning as this, when suddenly the friend sat down unexpectedly. Said the preacher, "Well, my friend, the wicked stand in slippery places." Quick as a flash the deacon got back with, "You may be able to, but I can't."

Judge Scored One.

The friends of a prominent Dixon jurist are telling a good story of an experience he had during a recent term of court, during which the judge was exceedingly tired of the excuses of jurymen and oratory (?) of the attorneys. The day had been a particularly tedious one when, early in the afternoon a new jury was called and in the bunch was a German who, like all the others, wished to be excused.

"I am a Cherman."

"That don't matter. Sit down," said his Honor.

"But," persisted the ventremen, "I have a sick voman."

"No excuse. Sit down."

"I can not write English."

"That doesn't matter. Sit down."

His Honor was angry by this time.

But the German was particularly persistent.

"I make nuddings of what these fellows say," he said, indicating the lawyers with a sweep of his hand.

Here was where his Honor had a chance to get even for the tortures of many days. He replied loud enough for everyone in the court room to hear: "That is no excuse. Neither does anyone else. Sit down."

There once was a fellow named Clyde.

Who once at a funeral was spied.

When asked who was dead

He smilingly said,

"I don't know—I just came for the ride."

A Canadian bishop on a trip through the wilds, stopped at a log cabin by the roadside. As he sat by the fire he asked:

"My good woman, are there any Episcopalians in this vicinity?"

"I hardly know, sir," she replied, hesitatingly. "The men did kill something under the barn yesterday, but whether it was one of them things or not I can't say."

Roy Bridges is on the sick list today.

William C. Thompson is at Pawpaw for a few days visiting friends and relatives.

Try For Championship.

It is very probable that the North Division high school team of Chicago, of which Paul Dornblaser, a former Dixon boy, is captain, will meet Oak Park this year for the championship of the state. The result of such a game would be of great interest to local foot ball fans, the prominence of Dornblaser making it so. The Chicago Record Herald of this morning says:

Captain Overstreet of the Oak Park football team and Captain Dornblaser of North Division are going to get together some time this week and decide whether the two elevens will meet this year. As the chances for an eastern game for the North Division squad are daily growing less, Managers Shillo and Dornblaser were not averse to giving the suburban boys a game, and as the Oak Parkers have been asking the North Division boys for a contest for the past two weeks, no difficulty is expected to arise when the two captains meet.

On "dope" Oak Park has a better chance than any of the local elevens to give North Division a hard battle. The team has been together for two years now and all the players are seasoned veterans. Up to date Oak Park has had a most successful season, and to round out the year by playing North Division for the championship will suit the suburban lads just right.

One Kind of Man.

At a dinner in Newport Rear Admiral Evans spoke with scorn of a young man who had married an old woman for her money.

"That chap calls himself a man, I suppose," said the great sea fighter, "but there are various definitions of the word man, and the definition that Pebles one."

"A Scot of Pebles said to his friend MacAndrew:

"Mac, I hear ye have fallen in love wi' bonny Kate McAllister."

"Weel, Sanders," Mac replied, "I was near—verra near—doein it; but the bit lassie had nae siller, so I said to myself, 'Mac, me mon.' And I was a mon, and noo I pass her by wi' silent contempt."

Tree Owns Land It Stands On.

In Athens, Ga., there is an old oak tree at least 200 years old, which bears the distinction of owning the land upon which it stands. This tree stands on land that formerly belonged to Col. William H. Jackson. He was so fond of the tree that when he died a deed was found that deeded the tree to itself.

FLASHLIGHTS OF FASHION.

Materials in Cloth, Silk, Sape and Velvet to Be Worn This Season.

It is interesting to know that stripes are to be in high style this winter. A smart design has each alternate stripe made up of complimentary shades. The stripes are shown in mannish mixtures of fancy suitings in many of the new chevits.

Bedford cord is to take on a new lease of life, and prunella, a fabric very like broadcloth, is to be fashionable this season. Paris dressmakers are looking, too, with approval upon rop, a glossy, piece dyed fabric.

There are charming suitings in broken checks and blurred stripes showing a black satin overstripe. The ground colorings are effective in dark combinations of blues, greens and deep reds.

The new broadcloth takes on more of a velvet than a silken finish this year. It is soft and exceedingly beautiful. Printed satin brocades scattered with large floral designs will be much used as foundations for chiffon and silk grenadine gowns.

Something new in silken fabrics is plaid crape. It is shown in pompadour patterns, white crapy background, with the most fascinating of white silk stripes and big flowers in pink, blue or yellow scattered carelessly over it.

This stunning gown is constructed of smoke gray striped cheviot. The skirt is cut with a center seam, and the stripes hit exactly, forming a pointed effect. The blouse waist has a vest of gray messaline silk and revers and collar of crocheted lace.

VANITY'S VISION.

Rich and Smart Are the Plaids.

School Frocks—Millinery Fads.

The new autumn plaids in their dark, rich colorings are exquisite and rival in beauty the classic plaids of the famous Scotch clans. Olive and emerald green plaided in black, black plaided in maroon, dull heliotrope grounds, dull greens and blues, bronze that merges into blues and greens, are all to be seen in the shops.

Simple school frocks with waists and skirts in one will be worn by the small girl this winter. These dresses follow the prevailing style and are trimmed with rows of tailor stitching. The skirts are either plain or plaited, hang full from the waist and reach to a point below the knee that is becoming to the little wearer.

The willow plume is a smart variety of the ostrich feather that will adorn many winter hats. In some cases it is exquisitely shaded, the lighter effect forming the under part of the feather.

Pretty little pointed toques are trimmed with stiff wings arranged at the sides between a large oblong buckle.

The illustration shows a smart black velvet hat. The brim is bound with folds of black silk, and the same silk encircles the dome crown and is knotted and drawn through a pearl buckle in front. Two handsome feathers fall gracefully on the hair.

About thirty-five Eagles enjoyed the social session at their rooms on Monday evening. Two candidates were given the initiatory work and after the meeting a very tasty spread was enjoyed, the treat of John Erwin.

Dickens Club Entertained.

The Dickens club was most charmingly entertained yesterday by Mrs. Maxmillian Updike of East Second street. After the reading of a number of selections from David Copperfield by several members of the club, Mrs. Updike delighted her guests with a number of vocal solos. Mrs. Updike formerly sang in grand opera with Melba, and her singing was indeed a treat.

Coffee, cream and sugar will be supplied by the Aid society and everybody will bring their lunches and have a good time. All friends as well as members of the church are invited.

Big Dancing Class.

Over fifty pupils took the instruction at the Misses Schilling and Brookner dancing school, conducted in Rosbrook hall last evening, and the teachers report that the class shows remarkable progress and that many of them will be dancing in a few weeks. The hall was remarkably pretty, the decorations for the Elks' fair making it very attractive. The social dance which followed was very largely attended and the music by the Imperial orchestra was highly satisfactory. Everett Little furnished the piano music for the class. On account of the Elks' fair there will be no more sessions of the class until Dec. 3rd.

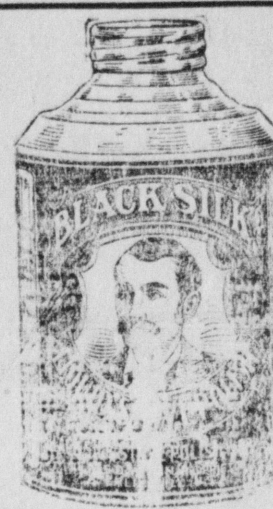

Off for Western Kansas.

Henry Raffenberg and a party of land seekers left this afternoon for Western Kansas. They went to Sterling and took the C. B. & Q. there for Kansas City, which city they will reach early tomorrow morning. The party will be gone about a week.

COULD NOT FILL DIXON ENGAGEMENT

Rev. Pierce of the Sterling Baptist Church Suffered Severe Stroke of Paralysis Sunday.

Sterling Gazette: Rev. Jas. Pierce, pastor of the Baptist church, suffered a light stroke of paralysis yesterday at 9 o'clock in the morning while preparing to go to Dixon to deliver a sermon in the Baptist church of that city. Mr. Pierce was in a precarious condition yesterday and last night, but showed some slight improvement today. Mr. Pierce's friends hope for a speedy recovery. The reverend gentleman was in good health apparently and had made arrangements to fill the pulpit of Rev. Billings at Dixon, as his brother clergyman was forced to be out of the city.

Editor in Trouble.

A dispatch informs us that Editor Fred Tucker of the Express is engaged in reforming the town of Walnut and the wideopen element is pounding the editor. Recent events are numerous fights, including one with a mob which he believes was intent on taking his life. Tucker says that he was on his way home from the office when he was attacked and knocked down. At this juncture, Mrs. Mary Odell, a sister of Tucker's reporter, rushed through the crowd and told the mob that if it touched Tucker it would be over her dead body.

SEA THEIR TOMB

Forty-Two Lives Snuffed Out by a Steamer Collision in Puget Sound.

HAD NO CHANCE TO BE SAVED

Shut in on the Main Deck When the Ship Went Down.

VAIN SEARCH FOR THE BODIES

Probably Swept Out to Sea—Only One Saved Who Was Not on the Upper Deck, and She a Young Girl.

Seattle, Nov. 20. — Forty-two lives were lost in Sunday night's disaster in Seattle harbor, off Duwamish head, when the little steamer Dix was run down by the Alaskan liner Jeanie. Thirty-seven of the seventy-nine passengers on the Dix were rescued. Of the five female passengers on the Dix the only one to escape was Alice Simpson, a 15-year-old girl. She is believed to be the only person who escaped from the main deck of the steamer, where more than half of the Dix's passengers were shut in when the fatal crash came. She could not swim, but her clothing kept her afloat until she was pulled aboard one of the lifeboats lowered by the steamship lifeboat.

List of Those Who Went Down. The following are the lost, those having no residence noted being from Port Blakely, Wash.: W. Bracewell, longshoreman; D. Baker, filer; Fred Baulet, filer; Peter Buzzetti, barber; C. Byler, manager; W. Byler, clerk; Alex. Carlson, planer; Ralph Clark, clerk; Joseph E. Conway, lumber surveyor, West Seattle; Charles Lennison, mate steamer Dix; Mrs. T. C. Ford, wife of superintendent of Port Blakely mill; B. Garcia, Filipino; Mrs. Granger, Spokane; Martin Hansen, filer; Edward Jones, foreman Rothschild & Jones; C. J. Kenney, United States army hospital attendant; John Keating, St. Paul; Peter Larsen, filer; William Mayers, captain Albert McDonald, lumber surveyor; Frank McQuerie, clerk; Albert McDunnmond, lumber surveyor; August Nelson and wife; Fred Piggott, filer; Roland Price, son of postmaster; Frank Parks, chief engineer steamer Dix; Ivan Read, fireman steamer Dix; James Smith and wife, Arthur Smith; Swan Swanson, lead setter; Charles Williams, Sawyer, Ballard Lumber company; A. Webster, lumber surveyor; deckhand, steamer Dix; five Japanese, one Chinese and one Filipino.

It is believed that the thirty-seven passengers who were rescued included every person who was on the open deck of the Dix when the little craft plunged down stern foremost into 100 fathoms of water. It is doubtful whether she can be raised.

None of the Bodies Recovered. Immediately after the Jeanie brought the story of the collision to Seattle the tug Bahada and Tyco, the passenger steamer Florence K., and the Jeanie were ordered out to cruise about the sound for floating bodies. One by one the boats have put back without having found any one. The tide was ebbing when the collision occurred and if there were any bodies at the surface they have probably been swept far down the sound.

AWFUL SIGHTS AND SOUNDS

Captain of the Sunken Ships Tells His Terrible Story.

Captain P. Lerman, master of the steamer Dix, told the story of the collision after arriving at Seattle. He was shaking with the cold, his eyes still dilated with the horror of his experience. "I don't know how it happened," he said. He was in the cabin when the alarm was given. When he left the deck there did not seem to be the slightest danger of a collision; the lights of the other vessel were visible, but how the two vessels came to such fatally close quarters Captain Lerman did not know.

The Dix sank a few minutes after she was struck, and just before she went down she was standing up in the water with her bow in the air. All this time the captain was clinging to the rigging forward and he says: "Just then the steamer heeled back to starboard. There was another rush of water, cries and screams of men, women and children. From below came sounds such as human ears have seldom heard." She filled and her stern went slowly down until the bow was standing straight half out of the water. For an instant I clung to the railing. The sight fascinated me with horror.

"Lights were still burning and I could see people inside of the cabin. The expressions on the faces were of indescribable despair. People on deck slid off into the water, went down shrieking and desperately clutching at the water or at the Jeanie, which still loomed only a few yards away. With in the sinking steamer pandemonium reigned. There were cries, prayers from men and women. The wail of child mingled with the shouts of those who were fighting desperately to gain the deck. What took place in that cabin will never be known, as no people were saved from there."

Port Blakely, which contributed almost the entire roll of the dead, is a town supported entirely by the lumber plant of the Pacific Mill company, and the town today is almost helpless in its grief.

ONE CERTAINTY

Some Dixon People Fully Realize It Now.

When the back aches from kidney ills, When urinary troubles annoy you, There's a certain way to find relief; A sure way to be cured. Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Dixon people endorse this claim.

Mrs. L. Sindlinger, of 220 West Chamberlain St., North Dixon, says: "In the fall of 1897 when asked to express my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills sold at Leake Bros. drug store, I told my interviewer that the treatment had cured me of backache which had clung to me so persistently that it became a positive annoyance. I can add to that statement made over three years ago this fact; during the period which has elapsed I have had no occasion to use either Doan's Kidney Pills or any other medicine for my kidneys. I just as cheerfully re-endorse the remedy today as I endorsed it when it first came to my notice."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MILKY WAY ROMANCE

Young Woman Finds a Sweet-heart by Putting Her Name on a Label.

ADVENTURE OF A YOUNG MAN

Puts His Name on an Egg Which Hatches Out a Proposal—Joe Letter to Sell Zeigler?

Greenville, Ill., Nov. 20.—Miss Laura E. Turner, a young woman of this city, has found a loving husband in a can of condensed milk. Miss Turner was employed not many months ago in the big condensed milk factory here. She was in the labeling room. One day while the cans were passing through her hands by the hundreds the impulse seized Miss Laura to inscribe her name and address on one of the cans.

Went Straight to the Sergeant. Now the unknown fate that was soon to link her name with that of Quartermaster Sergeant Eber I. Sharp, U. S. A., Fort Bliss, Tex., carried that can of condensed milk with Miss Turner's name upon it straight to Fort Bliss. It was a propitious destination, but even here it took a risk. There were many married men at the post. Married men use more cans of condensed milk than unmarried ones. Yet that can with a girl's name on it went to the quarters of Post Quartermaster Sergeant Eber I. Sharp, and when he started to open it he caught sight of that name.

Will Be a Wedding Next.

The gallant sergeant took the challenge. A letter was sent at once to Miss Laura Turner, Greenville, Ill. Then the sergeant emptied the can, washed and polished it and set it up on a little shelf in his own private room, the first sacred symbol on his shrine of love, and waited. The way was opened; Dan Cupid was at work. An exchange of photographs followed, then an engagement. Now Sharp is soon to come to Greenville to claim his pretty bride, and Miss Turner is happy in the thought that she is to become the wife of a brave soldier boy.

Not Leap Year, but—

Fairfield, Ill., Nov. 20.—Atwood Johnson, a young salesman of Cisne, has found a new way to get a wife. Thoughtlessly he wrote his name and address on an egg in a lot prepared for shipment by his employers. That day the eggs were shipped to New York and Johnson thought no more of his prank until he received a letter from a young woman of Hartford, Conn., in which she called him "dear Atwood" and popped the question regardless of leap year. Atwood is considering the case.

WILL LEITER SELL HIS MINE?

U. M. W. Official Says He Will and That Zeigler Will Be Unionized.

Carbondale, Ill., Nov. 20.—An official of the sub-district of the Illinois Miners' union is authority for the statement that the Western Mining Coal company, which has an office in St. Louis, expects to secure possession in the near future of the plant of the Zeigler Coal company and will at once unionize the men. This is the shaft operated by Joseph Leiter, where for over two years a fierce contest has been waged by Leiter against the miners' union and where on April 3, 1905, fifty-one persons, including State Mine Inspector Atchison, lost their lives in a gas explosion. The O'Gara Coal company, a Chicago corporation and one of the largest single operators in Southern Illinois, has completed the deal for the addition of nearly 6,000 acres of undeveloped coal land in addition to its already large holdings. The land is situated in Franklin county and is underlaid by a ten-foot vein of fine coal.

Costly Case for Cook County.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The examination of evidence for the trial of Cornelius P. Shea, president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, in Judge Ball's court yesterday was the sixtieth day spent in an attempt to secure a jury. Up to Saturday night the total number of veniremen examined since the trial began was 3,320, breaking all previous records. Out of this number only ten jurors have been secured.

Cold Air Explodes Dynamite.

Mitchell, Ill., Nov. 20. — William Taylor and Benjamin Rubbel, workmen at the Big Four quarry, were instantly killed by an explosion of ten boxes of dynamite. John Beasley was blinded by the debris. It is believed the explosion was caused by cold air suddenly coming in contact with the dynamite while it was being thawed by a steamer.

Conscienceless Vandals.

Edwardsville, Ill., Nov. 20.—All the accoutrements of the three altars in St. Boniface's Roman Catholic church were destroyed by unknown vandals, who entered some time following the morning mass. The wreckage was strewn about within the chancel. Half of a paving brick had been hurled through the center of altar fitting.

Murder of a Cabman.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 20.—Because he refused to carry them to their destination because of muddy roads Major Payne, a veteran cabman of this city, was shot and fatally wounded by Edward Spicer, white, and Grant Stoner, a negro.

"To Whom It May Concern:

We take pleasure in stating that we have purchased from John B. Viano, one of his Style H Strich & Zeldler pianos, which instrument was selected after a very careful examination by the committee appointed for the purpose, the committee having examined a number of other pianos of different makes and finally deciding that the above named piano was far superior to any other piano offered, quality and price considered.

"Since the piano has been placed in our club room, quite a number have examined it, and all are struck with its rich tones, fine action and beautiful case, and with the fact that the piano is in perfect tune, after having been shipped from New York to this point, which necessitated loading and unloading it a number of times.

"We believe we have in this Style H, Strich & Zeldler piano the best piano to be bought for the money, and we take pleasure in recommending both the piano and John B. Viano, the one a reliable instrument, and the other a reliable salesman. Mr. Viano and his piano are O. K.

Billy Sunday at Kewanee.

A Sterling man who attended the Sunday meetings while in Kewanee said the amory building which holds five thousand people, was crowded, and over two thousand people were turned away who were not able to gain admittance. Mr. Sunday's success is parallel with the revivals in other cities.

Speaking of the meetings the Peoria Star says:

Up to last Tuesday night Billy Sunday had converted 387 people in Kewanee. He said that he could name ten men in Kewanee whose conversion would bring 2,000 converts into the fold, and then the rest of the people would tumble over them selves in order to get into the church. This shows that Billy has a profound knowledge of human nature.

WHAT IS CATARRH?

Simple Way to Overcome the Dangers of This Disagreeable Disease.

Catarrh is an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs, with many annoying symptoms. In this climate there are few who do not suffer from this disagreeable disease, often in a chronic and dangerous state.

Fortunately, within the last few years a simple and reliable treatment for catarrhal troubles has been found—Hyomel, a combination of healing and germ-killing balsams that, when breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, reaches the tiniest cells in the respiratory organs carrying its healing and health-giving properties to every part where the catarrhal poison is present.

Used in this way, Hyomel kills all catarrhal germs, drives the poison from the system and heals all irritation that may be present in the mucous membrane.

If you have the ordinary catarrhal symptoms, such as offensive breath, burning pains in the throat, cough, raising of mucus, difficulty in breathing, sneezing, huskiness, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, coughing spasms, etc., begin the use of Hyomel at once.

A complete Hyomel outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, if needed, 50 cents, and is sold by Rowland Bros. under an absolute guarantee that it will cure catarrh or money will be refunded.

HUNTER IN VAIN FOR A STERLING WRESTLER

Louis Little and his side partner and training companion, "Gloomy Gus," went to Sterling Monday afternoon in an endeavor to find a match for the little Greek wrestler. However, they met with absolutely no success. They report that the sports of Sterling were interested in a coming checker and domino contest and that they had no ears for any such thing as a wrestling match. At first they did not give up hope and looked high and low, far and wide trying to find some one to match with the Greek, but when they found three big husky lads playing tiddley winks they gave up in despair and came home.

Bible Studies.

A series of bible studies of the minor prophets is being taken up at the Wednesday evening services at the Presbyterian church and the subject for tomorrow evening will be the book of Jonah.

A clergyman happened to tell his son one afternoon what lesson he would read in church the next morning. The boy got hold of his father's bible, found the lesson place and glued together the connecting pages.

In consequence the clergyman read to his flock the next day that "when Noah was 120 years old he took unto himself a wife who was"—here he turned the page—"140 cubits long, 40 cubits wide and built of gopher wood and covered with pitch inside and out."

After reading the passage the clergyman read it again to verify it. Then, pushing back his spectacles, he looked gravely at the congregation and said:

"My friends, this is the first time I ever read that in the bible, but I accept it as evidence of the assertion that we are fearfully and wonderfully made."

HEARD AT THE NACHUSA HOUSE

Traveling Men Speak in High Praise of Dixon.

A group of traveling men at the Nachusa House last night agreed that Dixon was one of the most up-to-date cities in the country. One of them said, "I can generally tell whether a town is up with the times by noticing the brand of cigars that is the most popular. If the leading store sells more Wadsworth Bros. Chicos than they do of any other cigar, I put down the residents of that city as progressive and up-to-date and desirous of the good things of life."

Wadsworth Bros. Chicos are sold in Dixon by Walgreen-Davis Co., and the man at the cigar case told me that he was selling twice as many Chicos as of any other two kinds. This shows that Dixon smokers want a good Havana filled cigar that burns free, is mild and pleasant and makes an enjoyable smoke.

Wadsworth Bros. Chicos is the only cigar I know of costing less than twenty cents that fills the bill. "Just see how fragrant it is," he said as he puffed a lot of smoke over the group. Chicos sell for but five cents, even though, as our friend the traveling man said, "It is the favorite with those who want the best cigar they can get for their money."
